UN Secretary Returns Home To Report on Egyptian Talks

Plans to Ask Help in Canal Reopening Task

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld arrived back in New York today to tell the U. N. General Assembly the results of his talks with Egyptian officials on guarding the cease-fire in the Middle East.

He planned to launch arrangements for U. N. help in reopening the blocked Suez Canal—a gigantic salvage job expected to take at least six months.

Before leaving Cairo, Hammarskjöld said the Egyptian government had asked for assistance to clear the waterway and he had agreed in principle. He declined to discuss other matters taken up with Egypt's President Nasser before making his report to the Assembly.

Nasser's chief political aide, Wing Cmdr. Ali Sabry, said in an interview Egypt would clear the canal with U. N. help. The Egyptians have already protested British clearance operations under way at the north end of the canal as a violation of Egyptian sovereignty and of the cease-fire.

Hammarskjöld talked with Nasser and other Egyptian leaders for three days about the duties of the new U. N. police force, which now has more than 500 men standing by at a base in the canal zone, and other details of the cease-fire. The General Assembly ordered 11 days ago between the Egyptians and British, French and Israeli troops.

There was no indication the Egyptians had modified their demand for speedy withdrawal of all foreign troops and stationing of the U. N. forces only at points on the old 1948 armistice line between Egypt and Israel. Sabry said Egypt expects the withdrawal to begin during the coming week if possible, without waiting for the U. N. troops to take over.

One of the British-French conditions in agreeing to the cease-fire was that the U. N. police force should be competent to "secure and supervise" reopening of the canal. They have made clear they expect the U. N. troops to take over occupation of the canal when they pull their own forces out. The British and French hold the northern third of the waterway.

Snow, Rain Headed Toward Missouri; To Start in North

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Snow and rain are headed for Missouri. The combination of a cold front to the north and moisture moving up from the Gulf set off snow today to the west.

Snow is forecast to begin in the extreme northwest corner of Missouri tonight and spread over the northwest and extreme north portions Tuesday.

Rain is expected to begin in the southwest corner tonight and spread over the remainder of the state tomorrow.

It will be colder in the extreme northwest tonight, with lows near 30 in that area to the 40s in the southeast and extreme south. For the five-day period ahead, the bureau expects temperatures 3 to 6 degrees below normal with precipitation moderate to heavy. In addition to the moisture forecast for tonight and tomorrow, rain is reported likely again Friday or Saturday with amounts between 1 to 1½ inches.

Organizations Asked To Call Silverman For Parade Wednesday

Any organization wanting to cooperate with the "Know Your America Week" program by participating in the parade to be held Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. is asked to contact Abe Silverman.

Misleading Sky

It looks as if a pleasant Thanksgiving is in the offing, but the weatherman says rain and possibly snow is heading this way.

Increasing cloudiness tonight; possibility of rain Tuesday with winds and turning cooler late Tuesday afternoon; low to night in upper 30s; high Tuesday in upper 40s.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 40; 61 at 1 p. m. and 60 at 2 p. m. Low Sunday night 39.

The temperature one year ago today, high 47, low 30, with .91 inch of moisture; two years ago 51, low 40, with 12 inch of rain; and three years, high 70, low 59.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks 52.7 steady.

WALKING JUNK SHOP—Dr. E. E. Ludwig shows two-year-old Sylvia McKinnon what surgeons found inside her when she was rushed to a Rochester, Mich., hospital after swallowing a tiny plastic doll. X-rays disclosed not only the doll, but a penny in her stomach and an open safety pin in her throat as well.

Saramae Endich Guest Artist—Community Concert Series Has Brilliant Season Start

A brilliant beginning to the Community Concert series was presented Saturday night by Saramae Endich, soprano, at Smith-Cotton Auditorium. It was easy to see why this young woman, who now stands on the threshold of a great career, was once voted the most popular girl in her hometown, Steubenville, O. Her charming personality and great talent completely won the audience, which listened in intense silence and showed enthusiastic appreciation, calling for extra bows at the end of each group of songs.

Miss Endich is possessed of a glorious voice of which she is in complete and satisfying control. In

Resume Talks In Four Day Dock Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Union and management negotiators return to the conference table today in an effort to end the four-day-old longshoremen's strike that has tied up major ports from Maine to Texas.

Contract talks between the International Longshoremen's Assn. and the New York Shipping Assn. broke up Saturday after a bitter meeting.

About 60,000 dock workers walked off the job on the East and Gulf coasts when their twice-extended contract ran out at midnight Thursday. More than 150 ships were idled.

Meanwhile, longshoremen on the West Coast planned to stop work today for a 24-hour period. The walkout was scheduled by Harry Bridges' International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILA).

The ILWU called the work stoppage ostensibly to consider its own contract talks with the Pacific Maritime Assn. ILWU spokesmen did not deny, however, that the East and Gulf coast strike figured in their plans.

The West Coast union has already staged a "sympathy" tieup of 10 ships in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Coos Bay, Ore., and Bellingham, Wash. The union refused to work ships arriving from or leaving for Atlantic and Gulf ports involved in the ILA shutdown.

Other forms of transportation began to feel the strike pinch. In Washington, railroad officials were reported to be considering an embargo on export freight because of the backlog of cargo in ports.

A trickle of ships managed to dock in some ports. The Cunard liner Parthia and the Holland-America liner Maasdam docked in the Port of New York yesterday. Company personnel helped passengers unload their baggage. The main issues in the strike are demands by the Independent ILA that:

1. The New York employers sign a single contract for all East and Gulf coast ports.
2. Men called to the piers for any task be guaranteed at least eight hours' pay.
3. The employers set a definite limit on the amount of cargo to be lifted in a single slingload.
4. The work gang size for general cargo shipments remain at no fewer than 20 men.

The New York Employers' Assn., which represents 170 shipping and stevedoring firms, insists that it does not have authority to negotiate for other Atlantic and Gulf ports.

Trial in Tennessee Integration Resumes

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP)—The defense prepared to resume its case today after a week's Criminal Court recess in the trial of John Kasper for sedition and inciting to riot in anti-integration disorders at school opening here last August.

Kasper, 27, is the Washington, D. C., segregation advocate whom city officials blamed for stirring up demonstrations after 12 Negroes were admitted along with 800 white pupils at Clinton High School Aug. 27.

Kasper denies that he ever advocated or took part in any violence.

Ike Accepts Clare Luce Resignation

Would Take Effect When Appointment Is Made to Italy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce resigned today as ambassador to Italy. President Eisenhower accepted the resignation with an expression of "great personal regret" and congratulations for "a job superbly done."

The White House announced the resignation after Mrs. Luce had conferred with the President for an hour.

The effective date of the resignation was left up in the air. But Mrs. Luce told reporters she plans to return to Italy and to leave her post after the Christmas holidays. She said she supposed the resignation would be effective "when a new ambassador is appointed."

Mrs. Luce, 53, has been ambassador to Italy since early 1953. In her letter of resignation, which the White House made public, she mentioned her recent poor health and said she would require several months of real rest. She asked that her resignation be accepted "at the earliest convenient moment."

In his letter accepting Mrs. Luce's resignation, Eisenhower said that he sincerely hoped that "your return to private life is only temporary and that your government may soon again have the benefit of your services."

Mrs. Luce told reporters, however, that while she will "always be available" for any service requested of her, she has no plans at all along that line.

She said there was no mention in her conference with the President of the possibility of her becoming ambassador to India.

Wednesday Is Last Day for Nomination For DSA Young Man

Wednesday is the deadline for all nominations for the seventh annual Distinguished Service Award. The award will be presented to some outstanding young man of Sedalia at the Jaycees' DSA banquet to be held Nov. 29.

The award is part of a national Jaycee program and is held annually on a state and national basis. The state Jaycee organization names an outstanding young man and the national group names ten young men.

Any young man in Sedalia between the ages of 21 and 35 is eligible for the award. A candidate need not be a member of the Jaycees.

Tony Walch, winner of the Jaycee Voice of Democracy contest, will present his winning speech at the meeting on Nov. 29.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Richard "Dixie" Lynch, president of the Missouri Jaycees. Nominations for the award may be made by anyone by clipping and filling out the application blank below and mailing it in as indicated on the blank.

Soviet Army Breaks Strike But Workers Use Slowdown

Cuba Presses For UN Action Against Reds

Hungarian Delegate Says Deportation Reports Invented

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Cuba today brushed aside Hungarian protests and pressed for urgent U. N. action to demand a halt to reported Soviet deportations of Hungarians.

Hungarian Delegate Endre Sik told the 79-nation General Assembly that the reported deportations were "invented by counter-revolutionary circles" to create distrust in the government of Janos Kadar.

He acknowledged that arrests had been made in an effort to restore order, but said "not one of the persons arrested has been deported."

Cuban Delegate Emilio Nunez-Portuondo said the deportations were not propaganda but were a fact. The criminals, he said, were not those arrested, but those who are loading Hungarians on trains for deportation to Russia.

The Cuban delegate urged support of Cuban proposal demanding a halt to the reported deportations.

In its revised form, the resolution cites "the principle" of the genocide convention and notes particularly provisions against subjecting a group to unbearable conditions and against transferring its children to another group.

The United States has never ratified the genocide convention. Hungary, the Soviet Union and 52 other countries have.

Backers of the convention said two U. S. delegates, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. and Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.), had fought to keep the genocide charge out of the resolution. They laid this to a U. S. Senate factions "fear of treaties and entanglements."

These sources said it was pressure from Lodge and Knowland that also led Cuba, Ireland, Italy, Pakistan and Peru to drop a genocide charge from their resolution adopted Nov. 9, which called for withdrawal of Soviet troops from Hungary and free elections there under U. N. auspices.

A spokesman for the U. S. delegation would make no comment on the genocide feature of either resolution.

The new Cuban draft contained further changes intended to win over countries that felt earlier versions went too far on the basis of the evidence at hand.

Instead of blaming the Soviet government for the deportations, it blamed "the Soviet army of occupation in Hungary."

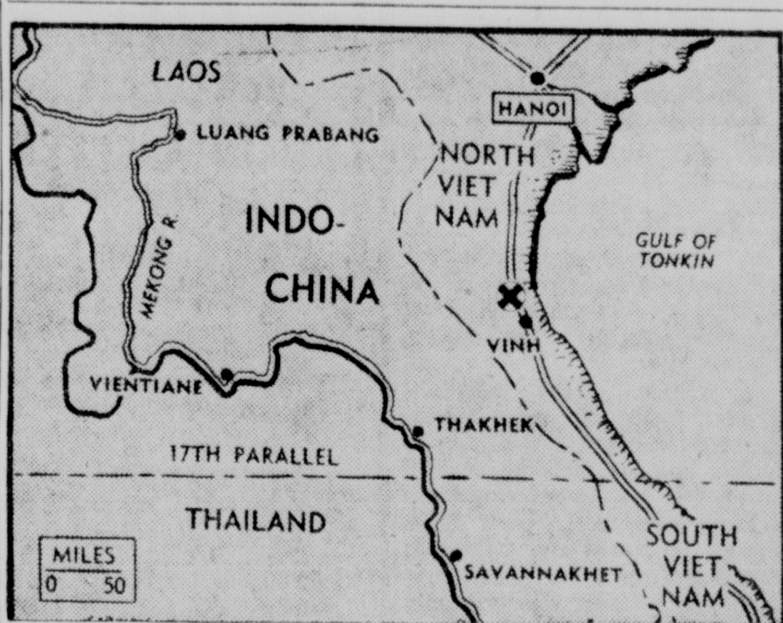

Instead of saying that the deportations were to the Soviet Union, it said the army was "forcibly deporting Hungarian men, women and children from their homes to places outside Hungary."

News Flashes—

Calls Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell today called a conference to plan a course of action for federal authorities in the South under the Supreme Court decree striking down racial segregation on public buses.

Summoned to a meeting here Dec. 10, were the 34 U. S. district attorneys stationed in 14 Southern states.

ANTI-RED REVOLT IN VIET NAM—"Many" Communist soldiers have been killed in an uprising north of Vinh ("X" on Newsmap) in Communist-dominated North Viet Nam, according to reports reaching Saigon, South Viet Nam's capital. The revolt, characterized by Western observers as the first Asian repercussion of freedom uprisings in Communist-dominated eastern Europe, occurred on the eve of a visit to Hanoi by Communist China's premier, Chou En Lai. Vinh is in the heartland of an area heavily populated by anti-Communist Roman Catholics and is known as a revolutionary district.

29 Persons Killed In Airliner Crash

CALI, Colombia (AP)—Twenty-nine persons have been killed in the crash of a Colombian airliner in the mountains west of Cali.

The Aerolineas del Pacifico liner, en route to the Pacific coast, burst into flames after the crash yesterday.

The dead included the North American pilot, John Relay, co-proprietor of the small airline with local routes; a native of Chicago, Rafael Barret, manager of an ink works in Cali and his son Guillermo.

Survey Tour For Drought Is Postponed

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., (AP)—A tour by state and federal officials to determine whether a hay and feed program should be set up in Missouri worst drought areas was postponed today.

Robert Hall, administrative assistant to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson became ill at Kansas City and was unable to be here for the survey.

L. C. Carpenter, state commissioner of agriculture, one of the officials here for the meetings, said he had been informed it was necessary for one of the department's administrative assistants to personally observe drought conditions before aid could be granted.

The survey then was postponed until next week. Meetings between the state and federal agriculture officials and county officials and farmers were to have been held today at Marshfield, Mountain Grove, Houston and Lebanon, and tomorrow at Bolivar, Buffalo, Warsaw and Versailles.

About 100 farmers were here for the first meeting attended by Carpenter, Murray Colbert, state chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee; Max Schwabe, Columbia state FHA director and Bill Capers, Columbia, Missouri Farmers Assn.

Bernie Huff, who said he had 115 head of cattle, told the officials it is a matter of having aid in the first of the year or "it will be sold out and get out."

Another farmer, Francis Doolin who has 250 head of cattle, said that last spring he had to pay $30 a ton for alfalfa, and now, if he could obtain it, he would have to pay $40 a ton for comparable hay. He said he had had an order in for more hay but could not buy it.

Colbert suggested that since the Commodity Credit Corporation had a "lot of corn" the farmers might step up the feeding of grain and slack off feeding hay. He told them a bushel of corn would cost them about 53 cents a bushel net after the government subsidy.

Three More Flights Carry Troops to UN Police in Canal Area

CAPODICHIINO, Italy (AP)—Three more flights left today carrying 106 Danish officers and men to join the growing U. N. police force in the Suez Canal zone.

More than 500 men of the force already are in barracks near Ismailia, awaiting completion of arrangements for them to move out to begin policing the cease-fire and withdrawal of British, French and Israeli troops.

Three U. S. Air Force transport planes brought 197 more Norwegian officers and men here from Oslo, bringing the total waiting to go to the Suez to 296.

Cold, Hunger Cause Return To Factories

Russians Send 20 Infantry Divisions To Replace Panzers

BUDAPEST (AP)—The Soviet Army and its Hungarian Communist allies today broke the general strike in Budapest, but sullen Hungarian workers immediately resorted to a defiant, slowdown strike.

Between 30 and 50 per cent of Budapest's industrial workers reported for work in the city's factories today.

Many of them declared they returned not because they believed the promises of Janos Kadar, the Soviet-imposed premier, "but because we realize that winter is here, with its misery of cold and hunger."

In the workshops which Western correspondents were permitted to visit they found workers standing around in groups—talking but doing little if any work.

Sources in Budapest told Austrian papers the Russians are sending in 20 infantry divisions to replace the hated Red panzers that crushed the anti-Communist revolt.

When the Russian tanks and bombers began their campaign two weeks ago to crush the lightly armed rebels, Soviet strength in Hungary was estimated at 11 armored and 2 infantry divisions.

The Russians apparently hope to achieve a double purpose in the shift to infantry. They will save on scarce fuel needed by the armored units and remove the main symbol of Soviet might that smashed Hungary's bid for freedom.

Even Nep Szabadsag, newspaper of Soviet-imposed Premier Janos Kadar's government, said that "it violates Hungarian pride to see Soviet tanks rattling on our streets and their guns glaring at passers-by."

The general strike, the strongest weapon remaining in the people's hands, was admittedly paralyzing many parts of the country. Gyorgy Marosán, minister of state in Kadar's government, in a broadcast over the Budapest radio accused "Western imperialists" of trying to prolong the strike.

He claimed that "agitators are hampering by rumors and armed groups by terrorist acts and threats the resumption of work" in mines and factories.

Hungarian anger mounted at the reports of continuing mass deportations of rebels by the Soviet conquerors, to Russia or to concentration camps in remote parts of Hungary.

Today Citizens Honor Freedom Of Opportunity

"Know Your America Week" began Sunday at which time many churches in the community paused in their regular service to be thankful for the America in which we live. The theme of the observance was: "The Faiths By Which We Live."

Today, Monday, is set aside to observe "Freedom of Opportunity." It is by opportunity that America has grown great and through this her future greatness is assured. The right of an unfettered start in the race of life with no artificial handicaps, the right to work as hard as we like and enjoy the fruits of that work as our own; the right to go as far as we can, developing according to our capacities as individual American men and women. From the very beginning America has been known as the land of opportunity where people from every nation in the world have come because of the promise of greater individual freedom.

"Know Your America Week" is sponsored by many Sedalia organizations in cooperation with the All American Conference to combat Communism.

Mrs. Marjorie Garansson is temporary chairman of "Know Your America Week" the first meeting of which was held Thursday sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club. A committee for planning a permanent organization was appointed by Mrs. Garansson.

Wednesday, at 3:30 p. m. a parade will be held in the downtown section of Sedalia, in which many organizations will participate.

THE MIGHTY CHRYSLER '57

CAR ILLUSTRATED IS CHRYSLER NEW YORKER 2-DOOR HARDTOP.

Riding in it is a brand new kind of motion!

The minute the wheels start you know something important has happened. On rough country road or superhighway, Chrysler's new Torsion-Aire Ride lets the wheels ride the contours but the body doesn't—the road just pours under you.

Chrysler's completely new Torsion-Aire Ride didn't just happen. To achieve it Chrysler engineers had to develop and apply new principles of design. They wanted a lower car with a lower center of gravity. To get it they eliminated front end coil springs and substituted the greater, smoother resilience of torque rods. The whole chassis is a blueprint of advanced engineering.

From this ground-hugging ride sprang the long, low styling of the new Chrysler, as functional as it is glamorous.

Pride in fine engineering is one of the solid satisfactions of Chrysler ownership.

You'll find this exciting Chrysler ride, powered by a 325-hp. engine, a personal pleasure you cannot duplicate in any other conveyance that travels on wheels. So when you visit our showrooms, don't just look at the racy new beauty of this car. Get behind the wheel and travel as you've never traveled before!

Month-Old Baby Takes Normal Meals After Five-Hour Operation

CHICAGO (AP) — Timothy Robert Flanagan is taking his meals from a bottle like any normal month-old baby now. He was born Oct. 10 with no connection between his mouth and stomach. In a five-hour operation, surgeons joined his esophagus to his stomach. Until the surgery healed, he was fed through a tube inserted into the side of his stomach.

Cranberries in 4 Variations

CRANBERRY SAUCE —Enhances turkey served hot or cold.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Any raw cranberries in the house? Then don't forget about that favorite of all present-day relishes—cranberries put through the food chopper along with unpeeled orange and then mixed with sugar and a dash of salt. You've probably tried this basic combination, but have you thought of serving it in four variations? Offering different versions of the relish at the same time guarantees to make that roasted turkey—hot or leftover—wonderfully festive.

If you have four similar pretty bowls, turn the relish variations into them. In our own household, we sometimes use Chinese bowls with matching soup spoons as small ladles. We got the idea for this Four-Boy Cranberry Relish from a Japanese meal where, after meat and rice were served, four trays with all sorts of enticing additions were offered in quick procession to complete our main course.

You might also wish to serve a new version of cooked cranberry sauce. If so, we suggest the following recipe using cider.

Four-Boy Cranberry Relish

Ingredients: 4 cups fresh cranberries, 2 unpeeled oranges (quartered and seeded), 2 cups sugar, salt.

Method: Put cranberries and quartered unpeeled oranges thru the food chopper, using coarse blade. Stir in sugar and a dash of salt. Chill until ready to serve, then prepare the following variations. Makes 1 quart.

One-boy: To 1 cup of the above relish, add ¼ cup shredded thinly flaked moist coconut. Garnish with coconut.

Two-boy: To 1 cup of the above relish, add 1 teaspoon lemon juice and ½ cup thinly sliced crisp celery. Garnish with thinly sliced celery.

Three-boy: To 1 cup of the above relish, add 2 tablespoons finely chopped seedless raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained).

and ¼ cup coarsely chopped walnut meats. Garnish with chopped walnuts.

Four-boy: To 1 cup of the above relish, add ¼ teaspoon of ground ginger and 1 tablespoon finely slivered lemon or orange rind. (Remove white membrane from rind before slivering.) Garnish with slivered fruit rind.

Note: Drained canned mandarin oranges and slivered preserved ginger may be added to the basic relish to substitute for the variations given, if desired.

Cider Cranberry Sauce

Ingredients: ½ cup tart cider, ½ cup water, 2-3 cup sugar, whole cloves, 2 cups fresh cranberries.

Method: Mix cider, water, sugar and a few whole cloves together in a saucepan. Bring to a rapid boil. Add cranberries and continue cooking over moderate heat for about 5 minutes, or until all the berries pop. Remove from heat and allow to cool in saucepan; do not stir. Remove foamy top with a spoon. Chill before serving. Makes about 1 pint.

Orange Cranberry Cups

Save orange halves from which the juice has been extracted and cut away any protruding membrane with a kitchen scissors. Notch edge of orange halves with scissors. Use orange cups to hold cranberry relish or cranberry sauce.

Freezing Note

Raw cranberries freeze well, with or without added sugar or syrup. If you have a freezer, you may wish to store some of the berries in it. Cranberries lose only a little weight and volume through freezing.

AUTOMATIC "ROPE-WICK" OILER

with 5-Gallon OIL
SUPPLY TANK

Complete

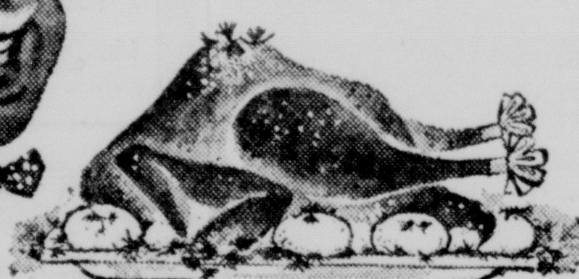

At last, a low cost, completely automatic cattle oiler. Easy to install, attaches to any post anywhere. No service problems. Just fill it and forget it. 5-gallon oil supply lasts for weeks. Entire mechanism built to last for years... animals can't tear it up. GIANT 3-INCH MARINE ROPE, specially treated, acts as wick. Holds full quart of oil. Provides perfect rubbing and scratching surface. Oils cattle thoroughly. Wears like iron. Cattle using oiler trip "oil release valve" and a measured amount of oil flows onto the rope wick from 5 gallon tank. Thus rope wick is kept thoroughly saturated at all times.

Which cup has the TOPIC?*

*The cup on the left has the Topic. In coffee it looks and tastes so much like cream, coffee lovers can't tell the difference!

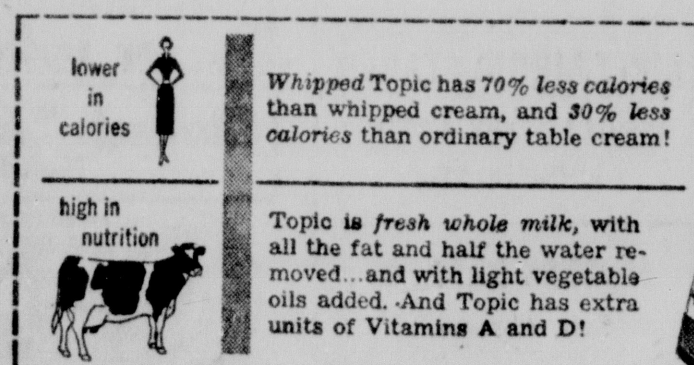

Amazing new fresh-tasting Topic tastes just like expensive cream in coffee!

Imagine a new kind of dairy product that looks and tastes like real cream in coffee, yet costs only about ¼ as much!

It's Topic—not a canned milk, not evaporated milk, not a powdered product—but a remarkable new achievement of dairy science. Has the fresh taste and rich body of cream in your coffee—without the high price and excess calories!

So make the Topic coffee test today. Buy several cans in your grocer's canned milk section. Serve it to your family and guests. You'll agree that fresh-tasting Topic enriches coffee the way you like it—without the high price!

Whipped Topic has 70% less calories than whipped cream, and 30% less calories than ordinary table cream!

Topic is fresh whole milk, with all the fat and half the water removed...and with light vegetable oils added. And Topic has extra units of Vitamins A and D!

OBITUARIES

Elvis Henry May

Elvis Henry May, 55, retired farmer, 1900 South Stewart, died at 1:25 a.m. Sunday at the home, death being due a heart attack after an illness of about a year.

Mr. May was born Oct. 25, 1901, at Knob Noster, son of Henry and Anna E. Balke May, and was married to Miss Bertie Marshall Dec. 20, 1922, in Warrensburg. They lived in the Knob Noster community until 1953, when they came to Sedalia, moving into the home they had occupied since.

He was a member of the High Point Baptist Church at Leeton. Surviving are: his wife, of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Imogene Tubising, 1904 South Stewart; his mother, Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Balke May, Knob Noster; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Cooper, Knob Noster. Harold Marshall, Leeton, was reared by Mr. and Mrs. May. Funeral services will be at the Gillespie Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Tuesday, the Rev. H. L. Alley, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, to officiate.

Russell Maag will sing "Beyond the Sunset" and "In the Garden" with Mrs. Mae Moser at the organ. Pallbearers will be Leonard Diley, Ray Chapplair, Cecil Carson, Clark Deshler, C. J. Cronhardt and Dan Gordon.

Burial will be at the Gillespie Funeral Home until after services.

Jessie F. Sheffield

Jessie F. Sheffield, 19, the former Jessie F. Dotson, was killed in an automobile accident Saturday at 11:30 p.m. at Lakeworth, Fla. She was living at Delray Beach, Fla.

She was born in Sedalia Sept. 17, 1937, daughter of George H. and Clara Louise Dotson. She attended the public school here. She was married to David F. Sheffield on Dec. 11, 1954.

She is survived by: her husband of the home; her mother Mrs. Clara Dotson, 329 North Randolph; four sisters, Anna Marie Dotson, 301½ West Seventh, Mrs. Nellie Mae Craighhead, 1406 East Third; Mrs. Evelyn June Billion, Sedalia, and Mary Luabell Dotson of the home; two brothers, O. J. Dotson, Pittsburgh, Penn., who is aboard the USS Fort Marion and Charles Robert Dotson of the home.

The time of the arrival of the body is pending the release of her husband from the hospital.

The body will be brought to Gillespie Funeral Home for services and burial. The burial will be at Bethlehem Baptist Church, Morgan County.

Mrs. Hadley Stahl sang "Beyond the Sunset" and "The Nearer the Sweeter." Albert Ellis was at the piano.

The body is to be taken to St. Louis, where he formerly resided, and a second funeral service will be held there at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Hoppe Funeral Home, with burial in Calvary Cemetery.

Mrs. Jessie Theo Grandberry

Funeral services for Mrs. Jessie Theo Grandberry, who died Thursday at Bothwell Hospital, will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Ward Memorial Baptist Church with the Rev. J. E. Ericson, pastor of the Ward Memorial Church, officiating. The eulogy will be given by the Rev. J. Y. Jackson.

Honorary pallbearers are Gertrude Bell, Gladys Allen, Ruth Miles, Jill Murphy, Myrtle Thompson and Zulabell Wright.

Pallbearers will be J. D. Quantrell, H. D. Jones, Warren Robinson, Melvin Toustoun, Carl Johnson and Newton Foster.

The body will remain at the Alexander Funeral Home until time of the service.

Burial will be in Crown Hill Annex.

Accused Airmen Undergoes Surgery

A-2c J. T. Gainey, O'Donnell, Tex., charged with first degree murder in connection with the fatal stabbing of Virgil Lee Cramer, at the Green Pastures, recently, underwent a major operation at the Bothwell Hospital. Gainey suffered an attack of appendicitis while being held in the Pettis County Jail.

He was taken to the Bothwell where Dr. Karl Gonser and Dr. D. R. Edwards performed an emergency operation. His condition, Monday, was reported as being satisfactory.

He is being kept at the hospital under guard.

Jim Askren to Speak At Jaycee-ette Meet

Jim Askren will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Jaycee-Ettes Tuesday evening at the Hotel Bothwell. Askren will speak on the design and construction of furniture.

Makes Appeal For Crusade Of Prayer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States has appealed for a "veritable crusade of prayer . . . for the specific ends that international sanity will triumph over war, that justice may be vindicated by the nations united under law."

"It is not mere rhetoric to say that at this juncture the world is poised on the brink of disaster," the churchmen said. "It is grim realism. Yet war in modern terms would be a nightmare of unimaginable horrors. It can only annihilate; it has no power to solve our problems."

The statement was issued on behalf of the 216 cardinals, archbishops and bishops at the close of their annual meeting here.

The bishops said the United Nations "offers the only present promise we have for sustained peace in our time—peace with any approximation of justice."

They said President Eisenhower has set "a pattern of vigorous leadership" in the cause of peace "and has emphasized many of the points which have been dwelt upon by Pope Pius XII."

Expressing "genuine satisfaction" at the course followed by the U.S. government, the prelates said:

"Worthy of highest praise are its efforts, rising above considerations of party and politics, to bring the problems before the tribunal of the nations, to restore mutual confidence in all those who seek justice, and to counter the threat of anarchy by marshalling the full strength of those forces of law and order which the world commands."

The churchmen also pledged "our unremitting efforts" to help the people of Hungary achieve freedom from Communist domination.

Pilot's Mistake May Be Cause Of Jet Tragedy

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — A young pilot's tragic mistake is believed to have caused the flaming runway smashup of a jet fighter and two parked B-47 bombers at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Three men died and seven were injured in the Saturday night accident. Loss in equipment is estimated at nearly eight million dollars.

Lt. Robert L. Young, 23, a University of Nebraska student who recently completed jet training with the Air National Guard, was practicing "touch and go" landings. As he roared out of the dark sky, authorities said, he apparently mistook a taxi ramp for a runway.

Young's F-80 rammed the two Strategic Air Command B-47s, which were being refueled, turning the ramp into an inferno. The pilot was killed.

The crew chief of one of the bombers and his assistant were also killed. They were A-1C John Lawrence Delaney, 21, whose home town is Chicago, and Donald Russell Price, 20, of Easton, Pa. A-2C John Streicher, 19, Paterson, N.J., who was reported in critical condition after the accident, was described as "fair" last night. Three others remained in the hospital with lesser injuries.

Lions Club to Have Airmen of Month Program Wednesday

The Lions Club will have the Airmen of the Month program at their meeting Wednesday. Guest speaker will be the Rev. Sam P. Williamson. He will take Thanksgiving as his subject.

Adlai Takes Vacation On S.C. Plantation

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson was vacationing with friends at a South Carolina plantation today, resting from the rigors of his unsuccessful Democratic campaign for the presidency and hoping to shoot a few quail.

He flew into Savannah last night with a campaign button in his lapel, a bright smile for well-wishers and a determination not to reveal the spot where he planned to spend his first vacation in a year.

All he would say was that he was en route to the same "coastal plantation" he visited for three days in February 1952. However, it was reliably reported he was going to an estate near Bluffton, S.C., owned by the family of the late Marshall Field, Chicago publisher and department store owner.

Court Clerk Wonders About 75 Cent Loss

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Walter S. Wilson, clerk of the Maricopa County superior court, would like to know where he lost 75 cents sometime during the past six years.

A regular audit of the books showed the court handled $8,552,893.29, most of it in support payments. State examiner Dan Garvey, however, accounted for $8,552,892.54.

"I guess I can't complain too much," Wilson said. "But I sure would like to know how the money got away."

Fires

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the three-room house and smoke house on the Allen Ragar farm northwest of Green Ridge at about 11 o'clock Friday night, Nov. 9. The house was unoccupied.

Grass fires caused run by the fire companies three times Sunday. The first alarm was to 500 East Walnut at 11:35 a.m.; the second at 1:16 p.m. to 1208 Garfield; and the third to 506 Sunset Drive at 1:33 p.m.

More than 100 acres of meadow and timber were swept by fire Sunday afternoon approximately 10 miles south of Sedalia and a mile east of U. S. Highway 65. The fire spread quickly because of a breeze blowing from the south which carried it along.

It was believed the fire may have been started by hunters who carelessly tossed a lighted cigarette or match in the dry grass.

The County Fire Department was at another county fire when the first alarm was sent in and it was more than an hour and a half before the firemen received the call and made the run to the location. Farmers residing in the vicinity and volunteers who stopped to watch assisted the fire fighters in fighting the flames and putting them in check.

Police Reports

Robert T. Keightley, 405 East 13th, reported to the police he lost a blue plastic billfold on Saturday morning between the 300 block on South Washington and the 200 block on South Ohio. It contained about $150 in cash and identification papers.

L. B. Hammond, Star Route, Sedalia, that while he was driving by Tower and Hill, a rock was thrown through the left side of his windshield. This occurred about 4:55 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. George L. Lewis, Route 2, Knob Noster, reported to the police the loss of a black plastic purse containing a leather billfold. It had some change, Eastern Star card, driver's license, letters, papers and identification cards. Believed lost in the alley behind Montgomery Ward about 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

A rear window at the East Shop in the 700 block on South Ohio was found open by the police. The owner was notified and locked the window.

The door to the Beauty Steak Shop, Third and Massachusetts, was found open at 1:10 a.m. Monday. Closed by the officer.

A report was given the police two iron step railings were missing from the Jolly Welding Co. on West Second Street, sometime since Halloween and Sunday.

Police Court

Harvey H. Hatman, Warrensburg, charged with double parking in the 100 block on East Main, forfeited a $2 cash bond.

Twenty overtime parkers forfeited $1 cash bonds in police court when they failed to appear and there were 47 others who paid the 25 cent fee.

Ivan Youmans, of Lexington, charged with speeding 60 miles per hour in a 40 mile zone, State Fair Blvd., to city limits on West 50 Highway, forfeited a $20 cash bond.

In Other Courts

A suit for $25,000 damages in the death of Roger W. Johnson, 16, who died in an accidental shooting Aug. 24, was filed Saturday in the Jackson County Circuit Court.

The petition was filed on behalf of F. N. Johnson, Overland Park, Kan., and Mrs. Evelyn Maddi, Sedalia, the boy's parents. Defendants are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Guild, and their son, William Winn Guild, 17, of Hickman Mills.

The Johnson boy suffered a bullet wound in the head when a .22-caliber automatic pistol which young Guild was showing him discharged. The petition alleges "gross and wanton negligence" on the part of young Guild.

The accident occurred at a drive-in restaurant in Kansas City, operated by the Guilds.

Body Is Believed To Be State Witness Against Ex-Convict

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — The body of a man found in an abandoned dugout north of Burk Burnett, Tex., yesterday was tentatively identified as James Black, 35, who disappeared March 7.

The skull was crushed in two places and was found apart from the rest of the bones.

Mrs. Black said articles in the clothing, including a pocketknife, belonged to her husband.

Black, a Negro, was last seen sitting in his parked car talking to two white men.

He was a state witness in the case of Jean Paul Norris, a white ex-convict charged with theft of engine equipment valued at $4,413. Deputy Sheriff Willis Hartley said, however, no link had been established between Norris and the slaying. No warrant had been issued for Norris' arrest.

Norris is out on bond.

Middle East Nation Has New Government

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A new government has been formed in Lebanon with Sami Solh once again the premier.

President Camille Chamoun picked Solh to replace Abdullah Yaffi, who resigned Friday. Solh appointed his Cabinet last night.

An internationally known diplomat, Dr. Charles Malik, is the new foreign minister. He formerly was ambassador to Washington and delegate to the United Nations.

Lebanese censorship has restricted news of the government crisis. Reports from Syria said Yaffi resigned because President Chamoun refused to break diplomatic relations with Britain and France.

Soviet, Poles Pledge Amity And Equality

MOSCOW (AP) — The Communist leaders of the Soviet Union and Poland have signed a declaration of "indestructible union and fraternal friendship" but have agreed their future relations will be on a basis of "complete equality."

Winding up four days of talks, the two regimes agreed Russian troops must remain in Poland. But the Poles were given veto power over Russian troop movements in their country, as well as promises of help in meeting Poland's economic crisis.

Results of the talks were summed up in a communique issued before the departure for Warsaw last night of Polish Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka. Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz and their delegation of officials and experts.

The agreement was signed by Gomulka and Cyrankiewicz, and Premier Bulganin and Soviet Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev.

Gomulka, who had led the move for Polish freedom from Moscow's domination, said at a reception after the signing:

"We came here with fears that the leaders of the Soviet Union would not evaluate fully and correctly the changes which are taking place in our country."

"We can say with joy that our fears were not confirmed by the position the Soviet government took on the questions we brought them."

The Polish Communist party in a statement hailed the agreement as a "great success for Poland." Observers in Warsaw said it appeared Gomulka had gotten all he asked for.

A communique summing up the talks said the two regimes "expressed confidence that the indestructible union and fraternal friendship between the U.S.S.R. and Poland will widen and consolidate, developing on the basis of complete equality and respect for territorial integrity, national independence and sovereignty, and of noninterference in internal affairs."

Special Committee Starts Work to Draft Changes in Labor Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special labor and management committee from the construction industry set out today to draft suggestions for President Eisenhower for changing the Taft-Hartley labor relations law as it applies to the industry.

Secretary of Labor Mitchell called the group together as he had promised during the recent political campaign.

It was expected the discussions would deal primarily with proposals to enact special hiring provisions in the building and construction field. Eisenhower previously has proposed that Congress allow employers and unions in the industry to enter into contracts for prebidding and special union shop arrangements.

Any administration proposals for changing the labor law to accommodate the construction industry are likely to be part of the general "overhaul" of Taft-Hartley provisions promised in the Republican party platform.

Singer Signs Million Dollar Movie Contract

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Singer Pat Boone has sold seven million records and has signed a million-dollar contract to make seven movies in seven years, and guess what he wants: A Phi Beta Kappa key.

Boone is taking 17 hours of college work — almost the maximum — at Columbia University, where he is majoring in speech, and his plans are to be a teacher, or maybe "educational television."

He's not trying for another seven in the entertainment game because "I've seen too many who have been up and are now down. I don't want any of it."

Nevertheless he has that contract with 20th Century-Fox for seven pictures.

Playing Safe With Guns...

Cross country travelers may note the season is one in which hunters are swarming the woods and fields leaving their transportation medium — the automobile — parked not only along the back roads but also beside main traveled highways.

The protracted drought may have deterred some from more enjoyable and profitable hunting excursions, but the urge to get out into the open has impelled most sportsmen to their accustomed fall recreational activity, despite the dusty conditions.

And with gun-toters on the loose again goes a warning to watch out for fellow-hunters, innocent bystanders and domestic farm animals.

Fatal accidents by firearms caused over 1,000 deaths last year. Oddly enough only one-third occurred while hunting. Guns left around to be handled by inexperienced youngsters can cause and have caused many tragedies.

Young and old alike should heed the season's precautions which in simple and comprehensive form read like this:

1. Make sure guns stored away at home are unloaded.
2. Guns should be locked away from children.
3. Keep firearms in good working order.
4. A gun pulled carelessly out of a car may shoot someone the first morning of the hunting season, or the last.
5. Don't drag your gun through wire fences.
6. Following another hunter under tree limbs and through underbrush is dangerous when carrying loaded guns.
7. Never use your gun to punch or club game out of the brush.
8. Don't carry a cocked gun.
9. Carry the gun with its muzzle pointed to the ground. Never point it at anyone.
10. Don't let the muzzle clog with snow or mud.

Central Missourians may get a laugh out of No. 10 precaution. But it's a good one to remember for that time when moisture does come to this area in the form of rain or melting snow which will create that unfamiliar substance known as mud.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Russian 'Volunteers' Ordered to Egypt

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — The American embassy in Moscow is sending the State Department some amazing documents. If bona fide, they should bring a showdown in the entire Near East crisis and the Russian move to send "volunteers" to Egypt.

The documents are orders to Russian reservists to volunteer to fight in Egypt.

In the Soviet—and, for that matter, in any Communist or totalitarian nation—young men don't volunteer. Things don't happen that way. The embassy now believes it has documentary proof that Russian reservists have been ordered to duty in Egypt and the present plan is to submit these orders to the United Nations for a showdown.

The Ponders

As of this writing, President Eisenhower has not made a decision as to what the United States will do if the much-advertised 50,000 Soviet "volunteers" start pouring into Egypt. He has consistently referred this to the United Nations where action would have to overcome a Russia veto and the Africa-Asia bloc.

The joint chiefs of staff, meeting in almost daily, day session, have reported that the USA is in better shape than it will be in the foreseeable future regarding long-range bombers and the H-bomb. It is ahead of Russia.

The National Security Council has decided that in case of outright war the United States will side with England, France and Israel. But this decision contemplates war in the formal sense—namely, the entry of the Red army into Egypt. It does not embrace war in the informal sense, such as was waged by "volunteers" in Korea.

On this there has been no decision, other than the President's statement that all these matters would be taken up through the United Nations.

Therefore the Soviet orders to reservists to volunteer come just at the right time. They should force the issue before the United Nations.

Nasser Swaggers

The Suez crisis took a turn for the worse last week. The French even threatened to kick over the traces and end the cease-fire. Simultaneously Colonel Nasser began swaggering around Cairo as if he had won the war.

Premier Mollet and his cabinet were furious because U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld agreed to a formula for the U.N. police force under which it would virtually be under the control of Colonel Nasser. Under his terms, Nasser could send the U.N. police force out of Egypt any time he desired.

The French were so sore that they indicated they would resume fighting rather than agree to these terms. Originally they had wanted to extend the fighting to the point where Nasser would be either ousted or killed. They regard him as the chief tool of Moscow and the man responsible for stirring up their troubles in Algeria.

A week ago, Nasser was cringing in a Cairo cellar, fearful of his life. Today he is conferring several times daily with the Soviet ambassador, is in constant touch with Moscow and seems determined to continue the war.

Dulles Recovers

John Foster Dulles hasn't helped to soothe French feelings nor poured oil on Suez waters.

From his bed in Walter Reed Hospital, Dulles has advised President Eisenhower not to meet with Premier Mollet and British Prime Minister Eden. He also advised that France and England must pay cash on the barrel head for oil from the United States.

Dulles is still sore over French and British entry into Suez without consulting him. He believes that refusal to advance credit for oil and refusal to meet with Mollet and Eden will help to force them out of Suez.

Eden and Mollet had proposed a quick emergency conference with President Eisenhower in Washington last weekend but, after Dulles got into the picture the White House agreed to let the French and British cool their heels for the time being.

The United States will now decide when the time is ripe for a Big Three meeting. When it does take place, Ike will be urged by his Secretary of State to read the riot act to the French and British prime ministers, warning them that they cannot get embroiled in war and then expect the United States to bail them out.

Merry-Go-Round

Harry Truman is having a hard time restraining himself from saying "I told you so." At the Chicago convention, Truman predicted Stevenson would lose the election by a greater margin than in 1952. He is just itching to remind the Democrats about his prediction.

Ike has been having trouble with the gold cap on his front teeth. He keeps jiggling it loose until it drops out. . . . A tip to Republicans—Washington hotels are swamped with reservations for inauguration day. Better get your reservations in early.

Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce will definitely resign as ambassador to Italy. . . . Real reason for the resignation of Arthur Burns as White House economic adviser was disagreement over high interest rates. Burns considers that the Federal Reserve Board's high discount rate may cause a recession. Randolph Burgess, Undersecretary of the Treasury, and Bill Martin, head of the Federal Reserve Board, didn't agree with him. They want a little "loosening" of the economy. They won. Burns resigned.

The French were so sore that they indicated they would resume fighting rather than agree to these terms. Originally they had wanted to MINNEAPOLIS STAR: Doctor's Complaint.—A doctor in Barnesville, Minn., complains that the small-town doctor does the back-breaking day-and-night drudgery of doctoring, only to see his patients rush off to a city specialist when they have an ailment that might involve a higher bill.

Certainly the round of the small-town medic is far from easy, and that's one reason why there are not more of his kind. Minnesota has about 150 "one-doctor towns," and in many of these the resident physician is elderly and in semi-retirement. The Minnesota State Medical Association reports 36 towns in the state now without any doctor and looking for one.

But we recall, too, the story of the doctor in Morgan, Minn., who delivered 1,400 babies in 25 years. When the townspeople honored him last June, he said that he liked his small-town practice because he could know his patients.

Yet this is an age of increasing specialization—especially in fields like medicine. And when the small-town patients get worried about a particular kind of illness, if they are near enough to a big city medical center, it is natural for them to seek out the specialist who spends

Her only theatrical experience was in school. There is no single answer for the doctor in Barnesville. If a good doctor is to be content with a small-town practice, he needs both the confidence of his patients and a chance to get a little special training for himself from time to time. But patients, as always, want the very best that they can get.

One of the best compromises evolved so far is the small-town clinic, in which several doctors band together to serve a bigger area and can do some specializing within their own small staff.

The city of Jerusalem has seen more than 20 sieges in its history.

Generalities and Handshaking Outmoded

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press New Analyst
WASHINGTON — No two men ever tried harder than Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver to climb hand over hand to high office. But the human hand never looked more useless than it did in the 1956 presidential campaign.

They put on perhaps the biggest handshaking campaign in political history — thanks to all the ways they had for getting around — and both wound up losing the election, their own states and even their own countries.

If they had never "shaked" a hand they could hardly have made out worse.

Maybe nothing could have offset the public satisfaction with President Eisenhower, who spent practically no time shaking hands with individuals but concentrated on talking in a few speeches to the biggest crowds that could be assembled.

Eisenhower had demonstrated in the New Hampshire Republican primary of 1952, when he beat the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, that a candidate doesn't have to make a single speech or shake hands with one voter if his popularity and prestige are big enough.

He was in Europe during the New Hampshire primary campaign, while Taft tramped the state.

Perhaps next time the Democrats will put less value on personal meetings between candidates and individual voters, and more on getting across complete ideas in far fewer speeches to far bigger groups of voters.

It was the Minnesota primary last March—when Kefauver whipped Stevenson — which may have set the Democrats on the course they followed.

A lot of reasons were given for Kefauver's victory in Minnesota.

Looking Backward...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

In a burglary at the home of William Luther, 1319 East 16th, a shotgun and two watches, overcoat and suit of clothes comprised the loot.

1931
Lt. Gov. E. H. Winter was the principal speaker at a banquet of the Men's Bible Class of the Broadway Presbyterian Church. Delegations from Warrensburg and Marshall were guests.

1931
Turkey with all the trimmings was advertised by the Federated Church for the New England dinner there for Thursday evening, Nov. 19.

1931
George W. Arnold, of the Missouri State Fair, and Mrs. Arnold were in Kansas City attending the American Royal Livestock Show.

FORTY YEARS AGO

During a session of the Missouri State Fair Board at the office of E. G. Bylander, publicity manager, a schedule for appropriations to be asked of the state legislature was being worked out. P. P. Lewis, president of the State Board of Agriculture, was present.

1916
Thursday evening while attending services at Blackwater Chapel in the northwest part of the county H. E. Forsythe died unexpectedly of a stroke of apoplexy.

1916
The Rev. P. P. Hummel, Sedalia, superintendent of the Children's Home Society of Missouri, was in Windsor for a couple of days in interest of his work.

They included his incessant handshaking and that he got around more than Stevenson.

Stevenson, who had to overtake Kefauver to remain in the running for the nomination, adopted much of the Kefauver technique: the handshaking, the meetings with small groups, and some of the Kefauver folksiness.

He won the remaining primaries. Then the two men followed essentially the same pattern in the national presidential campaign.

But it doesn't follow that what works in a primary within the limited area of one state is the medicine for a national campaign.

Learning Progresses At Varied Rate In Children

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

A mother writes that her six-year-old son "with hardly any effort has learned the A B C's by seeing them in print and is able to say them forward and backward."

"He is forever spelling out words, asking us what they are, then he prints them and from then on he is able to spell them forward and backward."

"This seems rather remarkable as they are long and difficult words."

There is certainly a good deal of difference between one person and another in their ability to learn to read and to perceive.

Word vision is described as a special function of the general visual center in the brain. It is here that this six-year-old youngster excels. While I cannot explain it, I should think this particular facility with letters and words would be a great advantage in school and later.

Another mother is not so happy. She says that her 15-year-old boy has started to develop a breast on one side.

This boy should be taken to a physician to see if anything is wrong with his glands of internal secretion — hormones — which might be responsible.

I believe that sometimes nothing is found and the breast enlargement continues and that very occasionally this is handled by plastic surgery. It should not be neglected since it may have serious

Taste Differences Disrupt Mothers and Daughters

It is difficult for some mothers to realize that a girl has to develop her own taste and that it is no insult to the mother if the girl's taste isn't identical with the mother's.

By chance the other day, I got in on a mother-daughter wrangle that upset the specialty shop clerk who was waiting on them and looked for a little while as though it weren't going to be settled peacefully.

The girl, who looked to be about 16, had her heart set on a gold sweater and skirt. The mother had her mind made up that the gold wasn't becoming. She thought the daughter should buy a similar outfit in rosy red.

First Mama wheeled to get her way. "You look like an American beauty rose in the red skirt and sweater," she said.

"But I don't like it," the daughter kept saying.

Then Mama got mad.

"You don't like it because I do," Daughter had no answer for that.

Stevenson and Kefauver made an exhausting campaign. Kefauver's part may be remembered less for what he said than for his handshaking. Stevenson made as many speeches a day to as many groups as he could.

While doing so, he was making pretty much the same speech over and over. He spent much of his time rephrasing to make the same speech sound better the next time.

If he had made no more than one speech a day and had gone into details on his criticisms and programs, he might have done better. Instead, he talked mostly in generalities.

effects on the emotional health of the youngster, even if it does not affect him physically.

"My daughter, age nine, recently got over the chicken pox," writes Mrs. F. "We tried hard to keep her from scratching, but notice several holes on her cheek, forehead and neck, and wonder if there is any way this can be straightened out."

Scarring from chicken pox is comparatively unusual.

Until recently it was not possible to hold out much hope of improving the skin from scars of this sort.

Now, however, in selected cases, it may be possible to improve the situation by the use of a special method involving a wire brush. The proper procedure is for the mother to take her daughter to a skin specialist. He can advise whether this would be suitable treatment for the little girl.

To close this discussion of childhood problems I should like to quote from a letter written by a man who disagrees with his wife.

He says he told his little son that when he gets up in the morning he shouldn't jump out of bed immediately but should lie there a few minutes and stretch his legs, arms and body slowly and then leave the bed.

I shall have to agree with the lady, since I do not know of any evidence that a healthy child is harmed by the splendid energy shown in facing a new day by jumping out of bed to meet it.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

JEFFERSON CITY — (MPA) — The manufacture of soap for use in all state eleemosynary institutions will begin at the Missouri penitentiary shortly after the first of the year, according to Col. James D. Carter, director of corrections.

Carter recently announced the appointment of Myron W. Grigsby of University City as manager of the prison soap factory. Grigsby has about ten years experience in manufacturing and selling soap products.

Prison officials said Grigsby would be broken into prison routine by attending guard classes and acting as a prison guard for a month or more.

Equipment for the new soap factory has been installed in an old warehouse building in the northeast corner of the penitentiary. The next step, according to Carter, will be to determine the particular type of soap needed at each state institution to meet their local water conditions.

Carter said the new factory will employ 40 inmates in the initial operation. More convicts will be put to work later in the plant under expansion plans, he said.

The operation at the Missouri prison will be similar to that of the Kansas state prison, according to the prison director. He listed three types of toilet soap, shaving soap, pumice soap, laundry and dishwashing detergents, soap powder, liquid soaps and disinfectants as possible products for the prison soap works.

Carter said soap making has proved to be a very profitable operation in other state penitentiaries. He said the operation would provide a profit for the prison while saving money for state institutions on their soap bills.

There's Red Tape In It--

Rules In Old Dominion Cause a Few Irritations

By Esther Van Wagoner Tuffy
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Although the voting was heavy in the recent presidential election more people would have gone to the polls if registration were made easier or eliminated.

Of this, I am personally convinced after a struggle to change my voting residence from Michigan to Virginia, where I own property and see the in an unladylike manner over paying a poll tax.

To register in the Old Dominion, one must live in the state a year and the applicant not only as to state age, which is proper to establish the 21 year requirement, but also whether "female" or "black." Why?

Just to find where to register is difficult. I had a choice of driving 12 miles to the Fairfax County Courthouse or going to a nearby private home where the occupant was never home during the hours when a working person could come. Three times I found no one there and anyway would not a Negro laborer hesitate to enter an old colonial parlor in a state where segregation is favored?

Finally I drove the 12 miles to the Courthouse where a bright woman thought she comforted me by saying my experience was "quite usual M'Daer." She discovered my poll tax payment had been posted in the City of Alexandria rather than Fairfax, so I still was out of luck. Therefore the Alexandria Treasurer had to give written proof of payment. That took two weeks. How many others?

Now I marvel that so many of the 102,743,000 civilians of voting age went to the polls. Add to the registration nonsense, only one in every four Negroes of voting age were registered for the 1956 elections in 11 states of the South.

In these days Americans move around a lot. The Census Bureau reports one in every five families change residence during a year and most states require at least one year's residence for voting. The ill and those confined to penal and mental institutions can't go to the polls. Some four states, including Pennsylvania (which forces the President to travel to Gettysburg) don't allow absentee voting. Men in the armed services (including my son) find it difficult to get through the red tape to have the privilege of voting. Some states even bar those on relief!

Vary that tossed green salad by adding membrane-free orange segments and paper-thin onion rings. Delectable combination!

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

No check has any value without a personal signature. The worth of a check is determined by the amount of money deposited in the account of the signer.

One's bank account is determined by the goods and services he sells for cash or by his income from other sources. Most banks require the maintenance of a minimum balance. Our worldly financial program also advances credit on a basis of projected ability to pay.

God does not have a credit and debit system such as we use in our material and human world. However He does recognize the investment of our spiritual talents in His kingdom. He does limit us to the point that we cannot give what we do not have.

Our spiritual credit is flexible.

God gives us more than we give to Him. He advances to us spiritual credit on a basis of His love for us, but He does say that we cannot give beyond what we possess.

There is one peculiarity with God's credit plan. We can drive no spiritual bargains with God, but we can give of our talents and find our spiritual assets growing.

The more we give, the more we have. The more of God's gifts we try to hoard, the fewer our assets will be. As soon as we become selfish, we lose our ability to give to others.

God gives us more than we give to Him. He advances to us spiritual credit on a basis of His love for us, but He does say that we cannot give beyond what we possess.

2 Types Crop Payments Are Net Earnings

Payments of two types to farmers under the "soil bank" crop reduction plans are counted as net earnings in computing earnings for social security insurance benefit payments, and payments of a third type may be counted under certain conditions, according to Scott Webber, district manager of the Social Security Administration in Sedalia, who said many inquiries had been received on this subject.

The soil bank payments to be counted as net earnings by self-employed farm operators are those made under the "acreage reserve" program and the annual payments for land placed in the "conservation reserve," Webber said. "These payments replace income which the farmer reasonably could have expected if his land had been kept in normal crop uses."

A third type of soil bank payment is the conservation-reserve reimbursement payment. These are payments made by the Federal Government to pay part of the cost of carrying out the conservation practices and making improvements on the conservation reserve. They are included in figuring the farmer's net earnings only if the expenditures are deductible as business expenses for income tax purposes.

A landlord who owns a farm and participates materially in the production or management of production of farm commodities gets social security credit for his share of the soil bank payments just as the farm operator does, Webber pointed out. For a farm owner who receives rental income but who takes no part in the actual operation of the farm, neither the soil bank payments nor the other rental income counts toward social security benefits.

Farmers who retire and claim social security payments in 1956 and then receive soil bank payments in 1956 may file an application for a recomputation after the first of the year, Webber said. Farmers who draw soil bank payments are subject to self-employment (social security) taxes as on other net earnings, and these earnings count toward social security retirement, disability, and survivors insurance benefits.

"A large number of elderly Missouri farmers are retiring each week under the old-age and survivors insurance program provided by the Social Security Act," Webber pointed out. "The amount of the monthly payment is based on the farmer's average monthly earnings."

The minimum monthly payment is $30 for the farmer and $15 for his wife, if they are both 65. Maximum for which the self-employed farmer can qualify is $108.30 a month for himself and $54.30 for his wife.

Rural, Urban Water Battle Is Being Waged

There's a real war going on in the country — a water war. Dr. Raymond Penn, University of Wisconsin agricultural economist, speaking at the University of Missouri Farm Forum, said that a water war is being waged right now between rural and urban people. Dr. Penn expects these conflicts to get much more severe in the next few years.

Pointing out the economic significance of water to agriculture, the economist said that agriculture will need more water and will have to compete for it with a lot of others whose needs are also increasing. Changes in agricultural technology will increase agriculture's need for water, especially for irrigation. Increased population will make water a scarce resource in many parts and will increase the conflicts between users.

According to Dr. Penn, the real problem seems to be how we can settle these conflicts so we won't waste too much time fighting each other. And he told the Farm Forum audience that they must work on solving this problem together and not as separate groups of farmers, businessmen, and conservationists, each with an "all-or-nothing" attitude.

Dr. Penn was one of the speakers on the first day of the Eighth Annual Farm Forum held recently at the University. Purpose of the Forum was to give the people of Missouri a chance to talk over one of their most pressing problems — that of water use and control.

To Get Petition Signed--

Committee Meets to Plan Brucellosis Eradication

Twenty three members of the recently appointed County Brucellosis Eradication Committee met at the Extension Office Thursday night to make plans to start clearing up the disease among the cattle herds in Pettis County. The purpose of the program is to get sufficient signers on petitions to request a test of all cattle except steers in the county. There is a state law that specifies that when petitions have been signed by 65 per cent of the cattle owners in the county and covering 65 per cent of the cattle on the tax books that the State Department of Agriculture is required to make a test of all herds.

The goal is to get the infection down to one per cent of the animals and five per cent of the herds. When that is done the county can be declared a Modified Certified Brucellosis Free County. The goal will not be too hard to reach as the present state infection is one and a half per cent of the cattle and eight per cent of the herds.

When that is reached clean dairy herds now in "Plan A" that have been required to test annually will need to test only if a milk ring test, run semi annually on the herd, shows suspicious. With beef herds only 20 per cent will be checked every 2 or 3 years to see that the disease is not building up.

In addition stock will not be able to move in to the County from unclean areas without a clean test within 30 days. On the other hand our stock and milk could go anywhere without restrictions.

At the present time there are 500 Modified Clean Counties in 25 states and five states completely on the Modified Certified basis. Plans call for a "Kick Off" meeting the evening of Monday night, Dec. 3. The State Veterinarian, Dr. A. L. Rosner and the Federal Veterinarian in charge in the state, Dr. Boone, will be on hand to answer questions.

The public is invited and urged to attend. The meeting will be in the Assembly Room at the Court House and will start at 8 o'clock.

W. P. Nicholson, Agricultural Extension Council director from Hughesville township, was elected chairman of the committee and the men extension directors will direct the signing in their respective townships. They will be assisted by the women directors of the Council, by the Farm Bureau directors, by the county livestock and dairy committee and other interested cattlemen.

Of course the test is entirely free as is a free vaccination of heifer calves. In addition up to $30 will be paid on grade cattle that react and up to $60 on registered animals.

Further information will be available at the "Kick Off" meeting Monday night. It will be in the assembly room of the Courthouse and will start at 8 o'clock. Additional information can be obtained from the County Extension Office.

Advantages of Modified Clean County in Brucellosis Program

Folks interested in the "clean up" program on Brucellosis are thinking primarily of the getting rid of reactors in antested herds. Certainly a test of all herds would start those infected animals to slaughter.

There are some other angles too, however. Folks on "plan A" are required to test their herds annually. When a county becomes a Modified Certified Brucellosis free county this annual testing of clean herds can stop. Dairy herds will be checked semi-annually with the milk ring test. Only when a herd shows suspicious on the ring test will it need to be re-tested.

About 20 per cent of the beef herds will be retested every two or three years. The method used for putting out the 20 per cent to be tested has not yet been settled but it is better than having to test all the herds at the owners' expense each year.

What Is Undulant Fever Like?

Another gain from a modified clean county is the lessened danger from undulant fever which is the form the disease takes in humans. The American Medical Association reports that 30 to 40,000 cases are appearing each year.

The disease may be contracted by drinking infected raw milk or by handling diseased tissues, as it can enter through unbroken skin. It can also be carried on dust particles.

Leon (Jim) Morgan of Washington Township was talking about his own case at the committee meeting Thursday evening. He had discovered the disease in his cattle herd and had the veterinarian out there testing.

He said he hadn't been feeling at all well and the doctor couldn't find what was wrong. One day he asked the veterinarian just how the disease acted. The "vet" said, "Just like you're acting." Leon suggested the doctor run a test for undulant fever and found he had it. He has now apparently entirely recovered but it is an experience he does not want to repeat.

Weigh a Day Cow Testing looking at a flea how far he can jump. It is surprising how true that also is regarding the productive ability of livestock.

You can measure the productivity of a beef cow or ewe by the size of the calf or lamb marketed but unless the cow or ewe is identified with the offspring you still haven't gained much.

Productivity of a milk cow is especially hard to measure even fairly accurately unless some kind of gauge is used. In the past we have had a complete Dairy Herd Improvement Association in the county several times. However, we are now down to two herds who belong to an association in Morgan County.

A new simple method of testing is now being proposed that is called "weigh-a-day." With it the dairyman weighs each cow's milk morning and night on the 15th of each month. These weights are mailed to the extension office where the milk production of each cow is figured for the month and for the year to date. Feed can also be figured if the farmer includes the weights.

The cost of such a program is about 50 cents per cow per year. A man with ten cows could find the annual milk production of his entire herd for five dollars. Looking at it another way folks are spending a dollar per field to find what kind of fertilizer it needs. Why not apply the same principal to cows.

We are planning to start a trial run on this "weigh a day" testing this winter if we can get as many as ten people to try it. Let us know if you are interested.

Swine Flu Will Effect Litter Size

By Leland Tribble
MU Animal Husbandry Department

With cooler days and nights ahead, you need to be on the lookout for swine flu. The symptoms are similar to those experienced by humans with flu — fever, muscular soreness, and general unthriftiness.

Hogs of all ages can be affected. If sows are hit by the disease at breeding time, the following litters may be small. Growing pigs that get swine flu will make slower gains.

Best way to prevent pigs from coming down with swine flu is to provide clean, dry sleeping quarters that are well ventilated and free from drafts. Each growing-fattening pig should have about eight square feet of housing space. Older hogs need more space.

The house should not be allowed to become dusty. Don't use too much bedding — only a small amount is required.

Also in cooler weather, we sometimes neglect to provide plenty of water for hogs. This is especially true during freezing weather. Pigs should have all the water they want at least twice a day and it would be better to have it available at all times. If automatic waterers are used, one automatic watering cup should be provided for each 20 pigs.

Hog lice are a problem on many farms and they appear to be the most troublesome during the fall and winter months when the pigs spend considerable time in buildings. There are many sprays which are effective for killing lice. Benzene hexachloride (known as BHC) or lindane are frequently used and these are also effective against mange.

Often one spraying is adequate but sometimes a repeat spraying is necessary. The hog house should be cleaned out and sprayed, too. One precaution — avoid spraying the pigs on a cold day.

Improper Storage Of Fuels Can Cause Costly Farm Fire

Improper storage of farm fuels and lubricants can result in a very costly farm explosion and fire. In just a few minutes, flames can wipe out the results of years of labor and saving and may even cause a death.

Here are some ideas on proper ways to store fuel on the farm from C. E. Stevens, extension agricultural engineer at the University of Missouri. He says that where considerable quantities of tractor fuel are to be stored, an underground tank located at least 40 feet from the nearest building is the safest form of storage. Besides additional safety, an underground tank can save on the fuel bill because there is less evaporation than from an improperly sheltered above ground tank.

Stevens says that above ground tanks can provide adequate storage but they should be at least 100 yards away from buildings, if possible.

Lubricating materials should be kept in a separate shed. Greasy rags should either be stored in a metal container or they should be burned.

Sooners Seen Taking Last Hurdle Easily

By SKIPPER PATRICK
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mighty Oklahoma, determined to regain the top spot in the national rankings and closing in on its 5th perfect season under coach Bud Wilkinson, is expected to take its last Big Seven Conference hurdle in stride Saturday.

The Sooners, who crushed Missouri 67-14 for their fifth straight Big Seven victory and their 9th consecutive undisputed title last Saturday, will complete their league slate against Nebraska's Cornhuskers in Norman.

Since the conference added Colorado as a member in 1948, Oklahoma has run up a string of 48 victories and one tie in Big Seven competition. The Sooners need only to beat Nebraska and Oklahoma A&M, at Stillwater Dec. 1, for another undefeated and untied season. Wilkinson's teams did it in 1949, 1950, 1954 and last year.

Colorado, which eased into the Orange Bowl as Oklahoma eliminated Missouri, will close its regular season Saturday with Arizona in Tucson. The Buffaloes started slow then whipped Utah 21-7 at Salt Lake City Saturday.

Two other teams wind up their seasons against outsiders. Kansas State, which won its first home game in two seasons by beating Iowa State 32-6 at Manhattan, will go against powerful Michigan State in East Lansing, Iowa State takes on Villanova at Philadelphia.

Missouri and Kansas have open dates this week before completing their schedules at Columbia, Mo., Dec. 1. Kansas played a hard but losing game with UCLA, 13-0, in Los Angeles Saturday.

Nebraska was outmanned by Baylor of the Southwest Conference, 26-7 at Lincoln.

Oklahoma's All America half-back candidates, Tommy McDonald and Clendon Thomas, sprayed Missouri with two touchdowns apiece in the Sooners' romp. It was Oklahoma's biggest score in history against a Missouri team.

Kansas' fumbles and faulty passing, plus a rugged UCLA defense, led to the Jayhawks' downfall at Los Angeles.

A couple of nifty touchdown passes from Dick Corbin to Gene Keady, one a 77-yard job, were the biggest blows for Kansas State against Iowa State.

Record-Breaker Jim Brown 'Just Wanted to Run'

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — "I just wanted to run."

Thus from Syracuse's 212-pound halfback Jim Brown comes the understatement of the week.

The boy who "just wanted to run" ran to the tune of 43 points, an intercollegiate high for the season, as he directed Syracuse to a 61-7 devastation of Colgate Saturday.

"I've been getting myself mentally ready for this for a long time," Brown said.

"I wasn't thinking much about a record. I knew I could get the 17 yards I needed."

"I just wanted to run."

Brown got the 17 yards needed—with a little to spare—to break the school's 805-yard individual rushing record for one season. He carried 22 times for 197 yards and an eight-game rushing total of 986 yards.

He scored twice on one-yard plunges and on runs of 15, 50, 8 and 19 yards. The spree boosted his point total to 106 points on 14 TDs and 22 conversions.

The Manhasset, L. I., senior's scoring performance certainly boosted his All America candidacy and at the same time may have attracted the attention of some bowl promoters.

Syracuse, an Eastern independent and one of the leaders in the race for the Lambert Trophy as the section's top football power, has declared itself in the market for a New Year's Day booking.

Lights at Accident Causes Two Thieves To Abandon Autos

STOCKTON, Calif. — Drivers of two stolen cars became frightened at the same highway patrol car red lights—flashing at the scene of an accident—and fled on foot.

So owners Robert F. Wisecarver and Kenneth Hallmark had their autos back today.

Both reported their cars stolen Saturday.

That night Patrolman Art Dossey, investigating a minor traffic accident, saw an automobile stop suddenly and the driver flee into a field.

Minutes later, a second car braked to a stop and the driver fled.

Dossey assumes both drivers thought they'd come to a road-block.

Official Says Olympic Movement Can Help Stop War By Example

MELBOURNE — Avery Brundage, president of the international Olympic committee, said today the Olympic movement, without money or soldiers, can help stop warfare by setting examples of fair play and sportsmanship for politicians to follow.

Brundage spoke at the annual committee meeting before a backdrop of suppression and political warfare in Hungary, bombings in Egypt and name calling throughout nearly half the world.

The committee meeting in Melbourne's town hall was the opening phase of the games of the 16th Olympiad. Competition runs from Thursday through Dec. 8th.

Bowl Game Contenders On Increase

By ED WOLKS
The Associated Press

Instead of thinning out, as they should at this late stage of the college football season, the ranks of contenders for the major post season bowl games swelled a bit over the weekend.

The only definite bowl games, at the moment, are Colorado, headed for the Orange Bowl; Iowa and Oregon State, tagged for the Rose Bowl; and Tennessee, apparently able to pick either the Cotton or Sugar Bowl.

And you probably can put Georgia Tech in that class too since a sixth consecutive bid seems assured for the Wrecks, beaten only by Tennessee (6-0). A Tech-Vol rematch in the Sugar Bowl would be a dandy.

But beyond those five, the picture is as confused as SMU's Charlie Arnold was Saturday (he threw a "perfect" pass to an Arkansas player standing alone on the goal line).

Clemson was figured a sure bet to be the Atlantic Coast Conference's entry in the Orange Bowl against Colorado. But with Clemson's 21-0 thumping by Miami (Fla.), the team that's bowl-banned by the NCAA, South Carolina and Duke have popped into the picture as possible being the ACC's "most representative team."

Clemson (5-1 with two ties) plays Virginia Saturday and Furman Dec. 1.

South Carolina (6-3) finishes against Wake Forest Thursday, Duke (4-4 with one tie) against North Carolina Saturday. South Carolina beat Maryland 13-0 Saturday. Duke beat Wake Forest 26-0.

Texas Christian, Southern Methodist and Baylor are in on the scrap for the host spot in the Cotton Bowl. The Southwest Conference champ usually gets that berth, but the front-runner, Texas A&M, is in bad with the NCAA. That leaves it to the runner-up, TCU has lost only once in the conference (to A&M) and plays Rice this week. SMU the next. SMU and Baylor already have dropped two in the conference and battle to stay alive in a showdown this weekend.

The Gator Bowl, usually accorded the "leftovers" apparently has a good crop of contenders to choose from. In the East alone, there's Pitt, which beat Army 20-7; Syracuse; and perhaps Penn State and Navy. Also under consideration are unbeaten Wyoming, the Sky-line champ, and the Southwest's third-place team.

Colorado, beaten by Oregon (35-0) and Oklahoma (27-19) and tied by Missouri (14-14), downed Utah 21-7 Saturday and made it to the Orange Bowl as the Big Seven conference runner-up. Oklahoma, now a nine-time champ of the league, is banned from a consecutive repeat.

With Iowa, beaten only by Michigan (17-14), having locked up the Big Ten's Rose Bowl berth (except for formal approval), only the conference title remains to be decided. Iowa gained at least a share by defeating Ohio State 6-0, and should Michigan beat OSU this week, Iowa gets it all. Ohio State is barred from the bowl.

Oregon State, which beat Idaho 14-10 Saturday, needs only a formal pat on the back from the Pacific Coast Conference to enter the Rose Bowl. The Beavers can lock up the PCC title by beating Oregon Thanksgiving Day.

In the Ivy League, Yale can clinch the group's first official title by defeating Harvard Saturday after knocking off Princeton, 42-20.

MCDONALD SCORES FOR SOONERS—Oklahoma's All-America halfback Tommy McDonald spurts into the end zone from 23 yards out, leaving a would-be Missouri tackler on the ground, as Oklahoma shellacked the Tigers 67-14 in Norman, Okla., Nov. 17. McDonald ran 57 yards for another touchdown and passed to Clendon Thomas for still another. This was the Sooners' 38th straight victory, and assured them a ninth straight Big Seven Conference title.

Lions Tied With Bears—Bobby Layne Takes Honors In National Pro-Football

By JIM KENSIL
The Associated Press

Pro football has apparently found a successor to Otto Graham, but he won't do Cleveland Coach Paul Brown a yard of good. He plays for the Detroit Lions.

For almost a decade, Graham, the fabulous quarterback of the Browns, was the game's glory boy, a role which falls traditionally to the leading quarterback. Only twice in the last nine years did Graham fail to win All-Pro honors—in 1950 when the Chicago Bears' Johnny Lujack, now retired, picked up the marbles and in 1952 when Bobby Layne of the Detroit Lions was honored.

And now it's Layne again who has emerged as the top headline in the National Football League. He's sparked the Lions, Western Division tailenders in 1955, all season and yesterday he again played the major role as the Lions whipped Baltimore 27-3 in the Motor City. The win kept the Lions (7-1) tied for the division lead with the Chicago Bears, who won their seventh straight, 30-21 over the visiting Los Angeles Rams.

Late-starting Washington continued to cause trouble in the East. The Redskins, who lost their first three games, have now won four in a row, the latest a smashing 33-7 against the New York Giants, division pacesetters, yesterday at Washington. The Giants (6-2) managed to hold the whole top rung only because the Chicago Cards (5-3) lost in Pittsburgh 14-7 to the Steelers.

The Browns, who have been floundering all season—their first without the great Graham—stopped the host Philadelphia Eagles 16-0 to move into a three-way tie for fourth in the East. The Eagles, Browns and Steelers are all 3-5.

Fourth spot in the West was also tossed into a three-way deadlock. The San Francisco 49ers traveled to Green Bay for a battle of the have-nots and edged the Packers 17-16. The Rams, 49ers and Packers are all 2-6 behind Baltimore's 3-4.

Yesterday Layne passed for one touchdown and kicked two field goals.

Young Welterweight Continues Campaign For Rookie Honors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Al (Sugar) Hart, 21-year-old welterweight from Philadelphia who attracted rave notices in his last start, continues his campaign for Rookie of the Year honors tonight at St. Nicholas Arena in New York against Hector Constance of Trinidad.

Hart, winner of 17 of 18 with 15 knockouts, stopped Earl Dennis Oct. 15.

Constance, never stopped in 43 starts, has a 25-9 record. Du Mont will telecast in some regions.

Tony DeMarco, the Boston slugger who has been a stranger to Madison Square Garden since his prelin boy days in 1951, comes back Friday to take on tough Gaspar Ortega of Mexico City in a TV bout.

Ceferino Garcia, former middleweight champion, drives a truck on a California movie location.

Oklahoma Player Ranks Near Top In Game Scores

KANSAS CITY — A statistical rundown shows All-America Tommy McDonald of Oklahoma, who with teammate Clendon Thomas paces Big Seven Conference scoring, is more than matching touchdowns with some potent football company.

Tommy has scored touchdowns in 18 of his 19 games over a two-year span, including his touchdown against Maryland in the 1956 Orange Bowl. This is the Sooner halfback's senior season. Oklahoma has two more games to go.

By way of comparison, Steve Broda of the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, discloses that:

Hopalong Cassidy of Ohio State scored touchdowns in 14 of 18 games in his final two collegiate years.

Jim Swink of Texas Christian scored in all of his junior year games, but was blanked by five foes this season.

Jon Arnett of Southern California scored touchdowns in 11 of 15 games his last two seasons.

And Gleen Davis, Army's great wartime halfback, scored in 17 of 19 games. His running mate, Doc Blanchard, scored touchdowns in 15 of 19.

The only one Tommy has been unable to surpass in scoring this year is fellow halfback Thomas, who has 16 touchdowns to McDonald's 14.

Sophomore girls of Smith-Cotton and Sacred Heart High Schools and their mothers were guests at a tea held Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock in the educational building of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church, given by the career advancement committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club, of which Miss Opal O'Brian is chairman.

Miss O'Brian presided, telling the girls and their mothers, numbering about 100, that the object of the Business and Professional Women's Club was the promotion of women in business and professions.

She then introduced Mrs. Everett White, a past president of the Sedalia BPWC a past director of District IV, and executive secretary and office manager at Town and Country Shoes, who was the speaker of the afternoon.

Mrs. White started her talk by saying there is no lovelier association than mother and daughter. She went on to say that it was a privilege to meet in the new building so recently dedicated to education during Education Week.

A career, she said, is defined by Webster, first as a running course, especially a swift one, full speed; general course of action or conduct; or notable progress or success.

Every normal young woman is thinking of what she is or what she hopes to be but the plan of success depends on her. "Today," said Mrs. White, "women are offered opportunity in every field. What will your choice be for a profession, a vocation, a job? A homemaker is always an important choice and requires as much preparation as anything else. To be successful, personal satisfaction must measure up to the social environment of your choice.

"There are many fields for women," she said, "and if your aptitude tests correlate with your desires you can make a decision. Among the many fields are teaching, musicians, technicians, accountants, secretaries, home economists, newspaper reporters, story writers, engineer, librarians, social workers, sales people, doctors, marketing, advertising, radio and television, insurance and hundreds of other things. More and more women today are entering engineering and science, and they are greatly needed in these fields. And there is a new field—electronics. This is the wonder science of the 20th century and goes into entertainment, commerce and industry. Electronic equipment is so expensive. With more use of it, however, there will be more production with less human labor."

Mrs. White stressed the fact that 50 per cent of the white collar workers are women. They receive preparation in high school with many going on to college that they may secure a higher degree of pay to start with. Others start at the bottom and work up. Girls should know how to type, know some shorthand, have some secretarial work and bookkeeping to enter in this work. They should have knowledge of the three R's and spelling should be added to this.

"Don't miss any opportunity," Mrs. White told the girls, and she quoted: "Give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you." "Invest your time wisely," she said, "and take time to think before you act. Cooperation is the key to getting along with people. Be enthusiastic, kind and thankful that you live in a country where you may think as you please. The most important thing is faith."

The table from which punch and cookies were served was covered with an ecru lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums in autumn shades. On either side of the centerpiece were yellow lighted tapers in crystal holders. A large punch bowl was at each end of the table. Serving were a group

Andy Griffith Ruins Chairs To Work Up Film Emotions

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (In the old days of silent movies studios used to hire a violinist to play background music to key up the actors for emotional scenes.)

Andy Griffith, a bright new star in the entertainment sky, has found a quicker system. He tears apart chairs.

Andy has just completed his first film, "A Face in the Crowd," produced by Elia Kazan for Warner Brothers. He plays the role of Lonesome Rhodes, a hillbilly va grant who becomes a television king and then, corrupted by his own success, plots to gain national political power.

Griffith, who earlier had gained experience as a night club monologist and star of the Broadway play, "No Time for Sergeants," found movie work exciting—but also disturbing.

"In any other medium you work up to an emotional pitch gradually," he said. "But in making a movie you have to be able to turn your emotions on and off like tap water. I found that hard to do."

In a final scene in which his career comes down in ruins the egotistical Lonesome Rhodes goes off his rocker. Andy did the exhausting scene three times, and each time it failed to come off. He couldn't key himself to a maniacal pitch of frenzy.

Then he asked them to bring him in some old chairs. "I stomped on 'em, kicked 'em and tore 'em apart with my hands until my hands were raw and sore," he recalled.

Then, angry enough to snap at the camera lens, he made the scene a fourth time, and it went off like clockwork.

But Andy says he's glad the picture is done. "You can't stir up your emotions all day, and then just drop them at night," he said. "Anyway, I can't. I've given my wife, Barbara, a fit the last three months. But I'm lucky. She understands the problem."

She has understood all along, ever since their courting days at the University of North Carolina.

Griffith, who retains that charming air of innocent cunning not uncommon in the Tarheel country, leaned his 6-foot frame against a chair and said:

"Last year I made—let me see—more than $100,000. Now ain't that terrible?"

It seemed so to him when he found out that he'd end up with less than $10,000 of it.

As a hedge against the future he is buying an old house and 53 acres on an island off North Carolina.

"I'm gonna get me some crab nets, too," he said comfortably. "I can always fish for a living."

"A fellow can always get along somehow."

Construction Starts On Tallest Structure In World at Roswell

ROSWELL, N. M., Nov. 17.—

The tallest manmade structure in the world this week started knitting up into the sky 43 miles east of here as construction got under way on a 1,610-foot television tower.

The tower, being built by KSW-TV of Roswell, will surpass in height a 1,572-foot television tower at Oklahoma City, the 1,472-foot Empire State Building and that enabled him to plunge into the 984-foot Eiffel Tower in Paris. Approximately, the tower will be located near the oil field where the TV station's owner, John Barnett, made his first strike in 1947 $3,000 in the bank, to play a and began collecting the fortune.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H.* At your drugstore. Money back guarantee.

The answers to everyday insurance problems*

LOCAL INSURANCE AGENT

QUESTION: I have friends in a large insurance agency in a big city and I carry some of my insurance with them. Would there be any real advantage in transferring it to a local agent?

ANSWER: About as much as having a local physician for your family doctor. Would you want to await the convenience of someone in another city if you were ill — or if you had an accident with your car?

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
